IF you do not need a large home and want a home that is out of the ordinary type, one which is strictly distinctive in design and one that you would be proud to call your own, then it will pay you to inspect this offering. The house only has 16 rooms and three baths, but in plan it surpasses your wildest dream of a small house with every convenience that one would find in a mansion. There is a fine garage for two cars and an apartment above, all on little over an acre of land, which is highly cultivated with every known tree and plant to add to the beauty of the home.
